6/4/191. Malone Farmer

William Sprague who has been sick a long time is very low at his home in Malone.

6/8/191. Wm. H. Sprague gives testimonial ad for Doanes Kidney Pills which gave him relief from backache and kidney problem. Lived a. 16 Elbow St. Malone.

6/21/191. Malone Farmer

With the grand Army of immortals Wm. H. Sprague, honored GAR Veteran and Adirondack guide has gone to his reward...Mr. Sprague was born in Peru, Clinton County, nearly 75 years ago, and had been a resident of Duane since his 17th year until coming to Malone to reside 3 years since in order to be where he and his family could have more convenient medical attendance.

He was a member of a large family which settled in Duane in its pioneer days as a hamlet almost at the top of things in the nearby wilderness. Amid these surroundings, he grew to manhood, farming and hunting and fishing, a vocation which he deeply loved and continued to follow as long as his health would permit. He still owned the farm on the Meacham Road on which he so long resided. After the breaking out of the Civil War, he enlisted in the Cavalry and earned the honor of being a brave and patriotic soldier-and patriotism and love of country burned brightly within him to the day of his death. His love of his GAR comrades and loyalty to them was proverbial and no man in the organization was held in deeper affection by his associates ... 14 years ... as supervisor ... prominent in local Republican circles ... Mr. Sprague married Charlotte Ames of Duane. They were congenial spirits and their married life was a happy one. Mrs. Sprague, three daughters, and a son survive...Mrs. For a Clark of Oklahoma; Mrs. Frank Murphy of Duane; Miss Cora Sprague who resides with her mother. The son Frank of Gabriels. Four brothers and a sister also survive. John of Bloomingdale; Joel of Leicestershire, NY; Alfred of Duane; Warren of Brighton; and Mrs. James Powell of Schenectady, NY....

On the 1900 Census, NY, Clinton, District 7, sheet 5 (pg 9). Carrie and David were living with his family, it states she had 0 children, 0 living, but also shows a 1 yr old baby girl, Vernice. Carrie's parents Hollis and Anna Swinyer lived 3 houses down from them.

On the 1910 Census, NY, Clinton, District 8, (pg 31), children listed are: Vernice (11), Claud (7) and Glenna (5).

On the 1920 Census, NY, Clinton, District 8, (pg 2), children listed are: Claude V. (16), Rae (14) and Kenneth (5). Vernice (20) was living next door with her uncle.

Pieces that don't make sense... 1900 Census states Carrie doesn't have any children, yet the baby, Vernice who is living with her is listed on the 1910 Census as her daughter. We know Claude was her brother Charles' son that she raised yet never legally adopted. On the 1910 Census, Carrie has a daughter Glenna who is not on the 1920 Census. In her place on the 1920 Census there is a son, Rae, who would have been close to Glenna's age, yet he was not listed on the 1910 Census.

- 47. ii. MARTHA IRWIN MCCORD, b. Peru, NY.
- iii. RUTH IRWIN BOSWELL, b. Peru, NY; m. PAT BOSWELL.

Notes for ANNA SWINYER IRWIN:

Social Security Index states Anna was born in 1894. 1900 U.S. Census states she was born July 1895.

When Anna's mother Nora died, Anna stayed with her father and her siblings went to live with relatives. When Anna was 12 years old her father died. Anna went to live with an Elderly couple in Peru. There she did chores and went to school. When she met and married her husband William Irwin, Anna was working on the Down's Farm taking care of a very ill Mrs. Downs.
