

Dennis O'Wyan's Will proven the 27th Jan^y 1754.

Recorded 1754.

Be it Remembred that on the Sixteenth Day of December in the Year of Our Lord One Thousand seven Hundred and fifty three; Dennis O. Bryan of the Town and County of Newcastle upon Delaware, Laborer, being very sick and weak in Body, but of perfect sound Mind, Memory and Understanding, did pronounce, publish & declare his last Will and Testament in these Words following or to the like Effect, to wit,

"In Case it should please God to carry me off, I will and desire that my Estate or what I have be divided among my Brothers and Sisters named Richard O. Bryan, Marguaret O. Bryan and Mary O. Bryan, and Edward O. Bryan living in Racannon about twenty four Miles distant from Cork, and I desire you George Mingo to act & do for me.
After the pronouncing of which said Words, the said Dennis O. Bryan in a few Hours died. For the manifesting of wh-said nuncupative Will and perpetuating thereof, The as herein before mentioned, have been committed to Writing within two Days after the Death of the said Testator and subscribed by the two Witnesses under-written the eighteenth Day of December in the Year above mention-

Richard Mingo

Newcastle upon Delaware At January the 26th 1754.

Personally appeared Margaret M. Dowell & Michael M. Coshly the Witnesses to the within Will and on Oath declared that they were present and heard the Testator therein-named publish, pronounce & declare the same in the Words therein specified or to the same Purpose, and that at the doing thereof he was of a sound Mind, Memory and Understanding to the best of their knowledge as usual. ✓

Coram, Jm^o Till Register