In the name of God Amen. the twentieth day of June in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and seventy eight. I Mary Wynkoop of Appoquinimick hundred in the County of Newcastle on Delaware Widow, being of sound disposing mind and memory, but reflecting upon the uncertainty of this mortal State, do make this my last Will and Testament in manner and form following: I resign my soul to God, hoping through the merits of my Redeemer, for a blessed reunion with the body at the resurrection of the last day: my body I commit to the ground to be buried in such decent manner as to my Executors hereafter named shall seem convenient, and for such worldly Goods as it hath pleased God in his providence to entrust me with. I dispose of the same as follows

44-
Imprimis, I give and bequeath to my son Nicholas Hammond, of the Island of Jersey British Channel, fifty acres of Land more or less, being all my undivided third part of a tract of Land purchased by my father James Dyre of Elizabeth Garretson, Rachael Garretson and Jean Garretson, being part of a tract of Land known by the name of Mid Clift, to be held and enjoyed by him his heirs, and assigns forever.

Item, I give and bequeath to my son Abraham Wynkoop, fifty acres of Land, to be surveyed out of my fourth part of a tract of Land, known by the name of Withy Wood, devised to me by my mother Rebecca Dyre, to be held and enjoyed by him, his heirs, and assigns forever.

Item, I give and bequeath unto my son James Wynkoop, two hundred acres of Land more or less, being all the residue and remainder, of my undivided fourth part of the tract of Land, known by the name of Withy Wood, to be Laid off from the upper part of the said tract, adjoining the Land of John Scott, and to be held and enjoyed by him his heirs and assigns forever.

Item, I give and bequeath all my personal Estate to be divided in the following manner, after my Just Debts are paid, that is to say, one half of my personal estate I give and bequeath unto my two sons Nicholas Hammond of the Island of Jersey British Channel and Abraham Wynkoop ~~xxxxx~~ ~~xxxxxxxx~~ to be equally divided between them, and the other half of said personal estate, I give and bequeath to my son James Wynkoop such shares and divisions to be respectively held and enjoyed by them, their heirs and assigns forever.

Lastly, I do constitute and appoint my son James Wynkoop, sole Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and Affixed my seal, the day & year first above written.

Signed, sealed, published, and declared by Mary Wynkoop as,
and for, her last Will and Testament, in the presence of us
