In the Name of God Amen I Terrence O'Bryan of Cecil County being weak of body but of sound mind and memory do make this my last will and Testament in manner following first my soul I recommend to God hoping for Everlasting life through the merits of my Saviour Christ as to the Estate wherewith Providence has blessed me my Just debts paid I give as followeth to wit I amare that my son John has Generally rid with he Coll I give to him. The mare that my son James rides Generally I give to him. To my wife I give the third part of the residue of my Estate the Other two thirds Exclusive of the particular legacies aforesaid I desire may be Equally divided between my Children (excluding Grand Children) And I would recommend to my Children so long as they continue unmarried to live with their Mother especially so long as she continues a widow and that they keep what they have together and Take their shares as they shall marry and in Case their Mother should marry and any Disagreement happen between them then that in this Case they take their several Dowdors if they think proper so to do. And Lastly I make my wife my Executrix hereby revoking all former wills In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixt my seal this 20th
