

Joshua O Hook, deceased continued.

selling so much thereof as may be sufficient to pay my just debts.
 Second- I do hereby nominate and appoint, Elizabeth Hook, my beloved wife executrix of this my last Will and Testament, hereby authorizing her to compromise adjust, release and discharge, in such manner as she may deem proper the debts and claims due me, I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal. This sixth day of May in the year 1858.

J O Hook (Seal)

Signed and acknowledged by said Joshua O Hook, as his last Will and Testament, in our presence and signed by us in his presence:

Joseph Kichey,
 John Conklin "

And the examination and testimony of the attesting and subscribing witnesses to said will taken in open Court reduced to writing, and filed, and so ordered to be recorded as is aforesaid, is now here accordingly, recorded as follows to wit;

The State of Ohio 1858.

Washington County, At the Probate Court held at the office of said Court, in Zanesville, within and for the County aforesaid, on the 28th day of November, 1858, the last Will and Testament of Joshua O Hook deceased, late of said County, was produced in writing, and Joseph Kichey, and John Conklin, the attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto, being duly sworn and examined in open Court, declared that said testator, Joshua O Hook, ^{deceased} was, at the time of executing and signing, said last Will and Testament, of full age, and sound mind and memory, and free from any restraint, that he signed the same in their presence, and that they heard him acknowledge said instrument of writing as, and for his last Will and Testament, and that they subscribed their names, as witnesses thereto, in his presence;

Certify that the foregoing testimony was taken in open Court, and reduced to writing, and taken at the time and place specified.

Wm S. Mason, Probate Judge."

Isaac Cordray, deceased,

The State of Ohio Probate Court within and for said County,
 Washington County March 24th 1858

The last Will and Testament of Isaac Cordray deceased, late of Washington County Ohio, was this day produced in open Court, and duly proved by the oaths of John Bell, and William R Henderson the attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto, whose testimony in this behalf was reduced to writing and duly filed, and thereupon it appearing to the Court from the said testimony that the said Will was duly executed and attested, and that the said testator Isaac Cordray deceased was, at the time of executing and signing the same of full age, and sound mind and memory and free from any restraint. It is therefore by the court ordered that the said last Will and Testament be and the same is hereby admitted to Probate and that the same together with the said testimony and this entry be duly recorded.

Isaac Cordray deceased continued:

Will

"In the name of the benevolent Father of all, I Isaac Cordray of Muskingum County, Ohio, do make and publish this my last Will and Testament.

Item 1st— I give and devise to my son George W. Cordray, the farm that I now reside upon situated in Chap Township in said County of Muskingum containing one hundred and sixty acres more or less.

Item 2^d— I devise and bequeath to my Daughter Elizabeth Serrell, the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars money, also to my daughters Mary Cordray, Hannah Blount, and Ruth Hayslupp each the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid by George W. Cordray as follows, one half of the above to be paid in one year after my death, and one half in two years from my death, the first payment to be made to Mary Cordray, and Ruth Hayslupp each their full amount of two hundred dollars, and not as above in two equal payments.

Item 3^d— After my death it is my wish that all my personal property of every kind be sold and the proceeds of said property be given to my Daughter Mary in addition to the above two hundred dollars except so much of the above personal property as may be necessary to pay my just debts, and funeral expenses;— Item 4th— I do hereby nominate and appoint my son George W. Cordray my Executor of this my last Will and Testament. I hereby authorizing him to settle and collect all debts due me and pay all debts and bequests as before stated. I further desire that no appraisement be made of my personal property, and that the Court of Probate direct the auction of the same in pursuance of the Statute. I do hereby revoke all former wills by me made. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this fourteenth day of January A.D. 1839

Isaac Cordray (Seal)

Signed and acknowledge by said Isaac Cordray as his last Will and Testament in our presence and signed by us in his presence

John Bell

Wm R. Henderson

And the examination and testimony of the attesting and subscribing witnesses to said Will taken in open Court reduced to writing and filed, and so ordered to be recorded as aforesaid, is now here accordingly recorded as follows to wit:

"The State Ohio 388— At the Probate Court held at the office of said Court in Zanesville within Muskingum County, and for the County aforesaid, on the 21st day of March 1839, the last will and Testament of Isaac Cordray deceased, late of said County, was produced in writing, & John Bell & Wm R. Henderson the attesting and subscribing witnesses thereto, being duly sworn and examined in open Court, declared that said testator Isaac Cordray was at the time of executing and signing said last will and Testament, of full age and sound mind and memory, and free from any restraint that he signed the same in their presence and that they heard him acknowledge said instrument of writing, as and for his last will and Testament and that they subscribed their names, as witnesses thereto in his presence.

I certify that the foregoing testimony was taken in open Court, and taken at the time and place specified and reduced to writing by me. Attest Wm B. Mason Co. Judge