

State of Tennessee, Rutherford County Court, July term 1824-- The foregoing last will and testament of Tigner Dameron, was presented in open Court at the above term and the execution thereof duly proven by the oaths of John Dunn & Benjamin Dunn, subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded--

In testimony whereof I, John R. Laughlin, clerk of said Court have hereunto set my hand at office in Murfreesborough this 24th day of August 1824--

John R. Laughlin, Clerk.

Recorded 25th August 1824--

P-59 Nathan Baker's Will !-- In the name of God, Amen, I, Nathan Baker, of the County of Rutherford, State of Tennessee, being in low state of health but of sound mind and memory, calling to mind the mortality of the body, knowing that is appointed for all men once to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner following, that is, I give my soul to the Almighty God who gave it and my body to the earth from whence it came, to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my family, and as to the worldly goods wherewith it hath pleased God in his providence to bless me, I give and dispose of as follows- I will, give & bequeath and convey to my beloved wife, Elizabeth Baker, all my real and chattel estate of what nature soever, to her and her heirs and assigns forever, for the following reasons, 1st- considering it all little enough to support her old age, and to raise and keep our family of children together- 2nd- Because I have full confidence in her, that in case she has anything to share, she will dispose of it amongst our children as justly as I might or could do- Lastly, I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth Baker, my whole and sole executrix to this my last will and testament and I also will that the Court do not require security of her. In testimony whereof I, Nathan Baker, have hereunto set my hand and seal this 10th day of September 1824--

Signed in presence of,

Theo's A Cannon
Jas. Sharp
Robert Martin-

Nathan Baker- (seal)
X- his mark.

State of Tennessee, Rutherford County Court, October term 1824-- The execution of the foregoing last will and testament of Nathan Baker, the above term, was duly proven in open court by the oath of Theophilus A Canon and James Sharp, subscribing witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded November 5th 1824--

Recorded 5th Nov. 1824--

John R. Laughlin, Clerk-

P-60 Rachel Sharp's Will !-- In the name of God, Amen, I, Rachel Sharp of Rutherford County, State of Tennessee, being in a weak and low state of health, but of a sound mind and memory, thanks to God for it and calling to mind the mortality of my body, knowing that it is once appointed for all to die, do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say, first, I give and recommend my soul to the Almighty God who gave it and my body to the earth from whence it came to be buried in a decent Christian manner at the discretion of my executors and as touching my worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me, I give, demise and dispose of in the following manner and form, I will, give and bequeath to my beloved son James Morris Sharp, one black mare which is called his mare and one cow his choice of all my cattle. I will, give, bequeath and convey to my beloved daughter Peggy Carlisle Hibbits one negro woman slave and one negro girl slave named Milly, to her and her heirs forever- I will, give and bequeath to my beloved daughter Jemima A Sharp what may be adjudged by my executors to be my best bed and bedding I will that all my beds, bedding, bedsteads, together with all household & kitchen furniture be equally divided as near as may be by my executors between my daughters Peggy Carlisle Hibbits and Jemima A Sharp- I will, give and bequeath to my beloved son Joseph Canon Sharpe all the residue and remainder of my estate of every kind & description, hereby authorizing my executors to sell all or any part of said property either at private or public sale as they in their wisdom may think best, also to make and dispose of the monies arising from the sale of said property to my said